VINCE PETERSON

New Music for Chorus

The award-winning composer and conductor Vince Peterson is the Founding Artistic Director of Choral Chameleon, as well as Director of Choirs at the Brooklyn College Conservatory of Music, CUNY. In addition, his thriving music program at the Union Church of Bay Ridge in Brooklyn caused the church sanctuary to be named "Bay Ridge's Premiere Performance Hall" by the Brooklyn Eagle. His work has also been profiled in the New York Times and several notable arts blogs. Acclaimed as "youthful and energetic" and said to bring his creativity and energy into the community "uniting both into a stunning symphony of the spiritual and secular," the focus of his work is, indeed, the ensemble.

As composer, Vince has received commissions from The DeLaSalle Institute (Napa, CA), Sacred Heart Cathedral Preparatory (San Francisco), The San Francisco Arts Education Project, The Monmouth Civic Chorus (New Jersey), Cantori New York and Chanticleer, among others. In addition to maintaining his own catalogue of work, he has commissioned and conducted premieres of the work of many of his composer colleagues.
